NORTH DEAL
"WHAT'S THAT ON THE GOODWINS?"

LL6321

TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

"What's that on the Goodwins?" This is an effective portraiture of the physique and bearing of those who man the lifeboat. Stalwart men these, whose motto is "Fit and ready!"—ready for the perils of the storm in rescuing the shipwrecked.

"And on fair Albion's coast, I ween,
None bolder are than men of Deal
To breast the ocean waves!"

To the right is seen the lifeboat house, and hard by the capstan used in hauling the boat on shore, whilst on the extreme left stands the second coxswain.
